This action authorizes the City to apply for and accept $80,000 in seventh year grant funding from the State of Texas, Governor's Office, Criminal Justice Division, Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) for the Austin Police Department to provide "Outreach to Female Victims of Domestic Violence and Stalking." The grant period will run from September 1, 2004 - August 31, 2005.

An in-kind match of $41,645 is required and will be met by continuing the existing salary funding and additional personnel expenses for grant FTE to be proposed in the Fiscal Year 2004-2005 Operating Budget for the Austin Police Department (APD), Victim Services Program. APD Victim Services has two VAWA grants, each funding two counselors, because there is a $80,000 cap on the dollar amount for VAWA grants submitted to the State.

The grant funds two full-time equivalent (FTE) Victim Counselors to provide counseling, service referrals, and assistance to more than 1,000 victims through the Austin/Travis County Family Violence Protection Team. The counselors work in coordination with other Team members to reduce victim trauma. The Team is a collaboration of agencies including Family Violence Detectives and Victim Services Counselors in the Austin Police Department, the Travis County Sheriff's Office, the Travis County District Attorney's Office, the Women's Advocacy Project, Texas Rural Legal Aid, the Travis County Attorney's Office, and SafePlace.

The goal of the Family Violence Protection Team is to provide comprehensive services at a single location in order to reduce the burden of service coordination often experienced by the victims of family violence.

This grant addresses the Department goal of reducing crime, fear of crime, and improving the quality of life of Austin's residents. It also addresses the following APD Program Objective: The purpose of the Victim Services program is to respond to the psychological and emotional needs of victims/families, neighbors and community members experiencing crime and/or trauma so that they can recover more quickly and completely from the effects of victimization.

Program effectiveness of this grant will be measured as follows:

| Measure   | Current Data(12/02 - 11/03) | Target Level(12/03-11/04) |
|---|---------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Number of training sessions held by grant-funded counselors   | 34                              | 10                            |
| Number of primary and secondary victims receiving crisis intervention services from the counselors  | 1,040                           | 1,100                         |
| Number of follow-up contacts made with the families receiving crisis intervention services from the counselors  | 1,167                           | 1,200                         |
| The percentage of victims responding positively to an APD Victim Services customer service survey who were served by Family Violence Protection Team counselors | 95%                             | 95%                           |

The expansion in the number of APD Victim Service Counselors in the Family Violence Protection Team from 4 to 9 counselors will ensure that victims of domestic violence and stalking will receive more timely and frequent contacts. Individual counselor caseloads will be smaller, allowing counselors to spend more time with each victim and have numerous follow-up contacts.
